This program is new. Therefore, the number of students who graduate, the number of students who are placed, or the starting salary you can earn after finishing the educational program are unknown at this time. Information regarding general salary and placement statistics may be available from government sources or from the institution, but is not equivalent to actual performance data. This program is approved but not yet in used as of reporting period. There is no data available.

Definitions

- “Number of Students Who Began the Program” means the number of students who began a program who were scheduled to complete the program within 100% of the published program length within the reporting calendar year and excludes all students who cancelled during the cancellation period.
- “Students Available for Graduation” is the number of students who began the program minus the number of students who have died, been incarcerated, or been called to active military duty.
- “Number of On-time Graduates” is the number of students who completed the program within 100% of the published program length within the reporting calendar year.
- “On-time Completion Rate” is the number of on-time graduates divided by the number of students available for graduation.
- “150% Graduates” is the number of students who completed the program within 150% of the program length (includes on-time graduates).
- “150% Completion Rate” is the number of students who completed the program in the reported calendar year within 150% of the published program length, including on-time graduates, divided by the number of students available for graduation.
- “Graduates Available for Employment” means the number of graduates minus the number of graduates unavailable for employment.
- “Graduates Unavailable for Employment” means the graduates who, after graduation, die, become incarcerated, are called to active military duty, are international students that leave the United States or do not have a visa allowing employment in the United States, or are continuing their education in an accredited or bureau-approved postsecondary institution.
- “Graduates Employed in the Field” means graduates who beginning within six months after a student completes the applicable educational program are gainfully employed, whose employment has been reported, and for whom the institution has documented verification of employment. For occupations for which the state requires passing an examination, the six months period begins after the announcement of the examination results for the first examination available after a student completes an applicable educational program.
- “Placement Rate Employed in the Field” is calculated by dividing the number of graduates gainfully employed in the field by the number of graduates available for employment.
- “Number of Graduates Taking Exam” is the number of graduates who took the first available exam in the reported calendar year.

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL The student is obligated to pay only for educational services rendered. The student has the right to cancel the agreement for educational services through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later, and obtain a refund at 100 percent of institutional charges paid less a reasonable deposit or application fee not to exceed two hundred fifty dollars ($250). If the agreement is cancelled, the School will refund any money that was paid within 30 days after notice is received.

Cancellation occurs when written notice of cancellation is given to the School at the address specified on the Agreement. The Notice of Cancellation, if mailed, is effective when deposited in the mail, properly addressed, with postage prepaid. If the student is rejected for training, or if a course is cancelled, the student will receive a full refund.

/ / Date by which the student must exercise his or her right to cancel. The student has the right to cancel and obtain a refund of charges paid through attendance at the first class session, or by the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later.

WITHDRAWAL

The student has the right to withdraw from the School at any time. If the student withdraws after the cancellation period, all tuition, fees and other charges shall be refunded within 30 days following withdrawal on a pro rata basis, less a registration/ administrative fee not to exceed $100.00. A pro rata refund will be given to students who have completed 60 percent or less of the period of attendance. The pro rata refund will not include the non-refundable charges.

Official notice is the date a withdrawal or leave of absence form is received by the school. Withdrawals must be given in writing handed in person, by email, by fax, or by mail, addressed to Ma Antonietta Borruel, School, Trinity School of Nursing 5500 Telegraph Rd Ste 145 Ventura CA 93003, Email: trinitynursingedu@ymail.com, Fax: 818 456-0993. Withdrawal forms are available at the main office.

For the purpose of determining the amount owed, the student will be considered to have withdrawn from the course when:

- The School receives notification of withdrawal, or the actual date of withdrawal
- The School terminates the enrollment
- The student fails to attend classes for a two-week period
- Failure of the student to return from a leave of absence

In the last case, the date of withdrawal shall be deemed to be the last date of recorded attendance.

If the student obtains a loan pay for an educational program, the student will have to repay the full amount of the loan plus interest, less the amount of any refund, and that, if the student has received federal student financial aid funds, the student is entitled to a refund of moneys not paid from federal student financial aid program funds.

REFUNDS

Refunds are based on pro-rata calculations. A pro-rata refund shall be no less than the total amount owed by the student for the portion of the educational program provided subtracted from the amount paid by the student, calculated as follows: The amount owed equals the daily charge for the program (total institutional charge, divided by the number of days or hours in the program), multiplied by the number of days student attended, or was scheduled to attend, prior to withdrawal.
